

TxVia Expands Managed Services Team

Matthew Nyren to Oversee Call Center Operations

New York, NY – July 16, 2009 – TxVia, Inc., a pioneer in processing technology for network-based payment systems, announced today the expansion of its team with the addition of Matthew Nyren as vice president, managed services. Nyren has more than fifteen years of experience managing contact centers throughout the world and extensive experience in the area of prepaid cards.

“We are excited to have industry veteran Matt Nyren join our managed services team as we continue to expand our servicing solutions”, said Anil D. Aggarwal, chairman and CEO of TxVia.